CONFERENCE HIGH
SCHOOL TEACHERSWILL BE HELD IN ANDER-SON BEGINNING FRI-
DAY, 22

FOUR COUNTIES

Pickens, Oconee, Greenville and Anderson Will Be Represented at Meeting.

A conference of high school teachers from Greenville, Oconee, Pickens and Anderson counties will be held in Anderson on Friday, October 22, and will probably be one of the greatest gatherings of teachers ever held in this section.

A few days ago Supt. E. C. McCants received a letter from Prof. W. H. Hand, state inspector of high schools, asking if Anderson wanted to have the conference. Mr. McCants replied to the letter that Anderson would like very much to have the conference held in this city and as a result Prof. Hand has sent out the following letter:

"Fellow Worker:
"A conference of high school teachers is called to meet in the auditorium of Anderson college in Anderson at 8 o'clock Friday evening, October 22d, and to continue through Saturday.

"Questions of the most vital importance to the high schools will be discussed freely and without papers or set addresses. These questions are of interest to trustees and patrons as well as to teachers.

"This letter is an appeal to county superintendents, school superintendents, and trustees to attend themselves and to encourage and urge their teachers to attend. If a teacher is without experience, he needs the help of the conference. If he has had ripe experience, the conference needs him.

"It is to be hoped that you will respond heartily to this call. It will take but 24 hours of your time and the expense will be small. Anderson will welcome you. Supt. E. C. McCants or President J. P. Kinard will take pleasure in giving you any needed information.

"I should be glad to hear from you favorably at once.

"Cordially,
"W. H. Hand.

Proper Name.

"Why do they call 'em fountain pens? I should say reservoir pens would be the better name. A reservoir contains liquids; a fountain throws 'em around."

"I think fountain pen is the proper name," said the party of the second part.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES
DARK, THICK GLOSSYTry Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

NEAR DEATH
BY SMOTHERINGBut Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Efforts Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines pitched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles.

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

On a bottle of Cardui 60 days.

Write to: Wyeth's Medicine Co., 501 North Second St., Philadelphia, Pa., for Cardui. Enclosed find your name and 5-cent box label. (Send for "Woman's" in plain wrapper, N. C. 10)

KEENEST INTEREST
IN DRESS-UP WEEKWILL CELEBRATE DEPART-URE OF THE HARD TIMES

BIG MOVEMENT

Over Entire Section and People
Will Forget War—Talk Prosperity for Seven Days.

The idea of a "Dress Up Week" is taking the wild-fire in Anderson, and there is every reason to believe that this manner of celebrating the departure of hard times and the advent of prosperity all over this broad land is going to prove extremely popular in Anderson.

A similar movement is on in practically every state from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, and next week the entire country will be dressed up—looking prosperous, feeling prosperous, and, in fact, being prosperous. Summer is rapidly bowing herself out, and if you still cling to the palm beach and the straw, be sure you get a lot of good out of them the remaining days of this week, and prepare yourself to don something new and reasonable next week—beginning on Sunday.

This is strictly a men's affair (the assumption being that the women are going to dress up anyhow) and, if not too far fetched, it might be called the men's Easter display. But the name is not material; just slip on some glad rags—brand new, too—and feel dressed up. Join the procession of prosperous-looking "white primary voters" and with an expensive looking cigar in the corner of your mouth, talk good times for all you are worth for a solid week. And by all means, shame the fellow who is still growling about the war and refuses to appear in a new outfit—provided there is any such person in Anderson, and it is very doubtful that there is.

The merchants are going to dress up their windows for dress up week, and encourage in every way the movement for Anderson to "take off the old coat and put coat and hat on the new." No, indeed, no prize is offered for the best dressed man, and as everybody else is going to dress up, you won't feel conspicuous in your new togs. Buy 'em this week—and wear 'em next week.

Mrs. Patrick Honored.
Mrs. Carrie Patrick has received a letter from Miss Alice Earle of Columbia, president of the State U. D. C., notifying her of her appointment as the delegate to the general U. D. C. convention in San Francisco, as a substitute for Miss Earle, who is unable to go on account of the illness of her mother. Mrs. Patrick is Division Historian and this appointment is quite an honor and it is to be hoped that Mrs. Patrick will be able to accept. The convention meets October 20th and Mrs. Patrick has not yet decided definitely whether she will go or not.

Firewell Party for Miss Lewis.
Mrs. M. L. Bonham entertained a few ladies at a charmingly informal little affair on Thursday afternoon for Miss Edna Lewis who has been the guest of Miss Mab Bonham for several weeks and who left yesterday for her home in Baltimore. Mrs. Bonham also has with her just now her two charming sisters, Mrs. Allen and Miss Aldrich, and the afternoon was delightfully pleasant.

"PEG O' MY HEART"

At The Anderson Theatre for One Night Only.

On Friday night the local theatregoers will have the opportunity of seeing "Peg O' My Heart," Oliver Morosco's production of J. Hartley Manner's greatest comedy, which Laurette Taylor played in New York for two years.

The scenes of the play are laid in a small town in England, Scarborough, the home of the Chichesters. They are a proud, unnatural family, and have accepted the responsibility of educating Peg, an unknown niece, for no other reason than the urgent need of the income that is offered. Peg, on the other hand, is a jolly impetuous girl, with a fascinating brogue. She has been raised by her whole-hearted father, and when she arrives at the Chichester house with her dog Michael, she shocks the family, first by her appearance and then by her manners. Her familiarity with their mode of living—ac ready wit and her curious antics, cause many humorous situations throughout the play.

The daughter, Ethel, is having a love affair with a man named Brent, who is married. He had also been making love to Peg, but she repulsed him, making friends only with "Jerry," as she calls him. Peg is successful in preventing an elopement between Ethel and Brent, and then is about to leave the Chichester home when it is learned that Jerry is really an English nobleman and in love with Peg, so there is a happy ending to the little play, when Peg, in Jerry's arms, tells that when her father hears the news he will quote the poet and say that "There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream."

In the part of "Peg," Miss Rea Martin is said to be all that can be desired. She is supported by a carefully selected cast.

The Swell Guest—"Your cook is a very handsome girl." The Shrewd Host—"She is. She mashes the potatoes so simply looking at them."—Chicago Commercial-Tribune.

Slight Accident.

Last night Mr. Ned Prevost was knocked down and slightly injured by an automobile driven by Mr. A. C. Barton. It appears that Mr. Prevost was coming from around a street car and stepped in front of the automobile. The street car was standing still and the automobile was passing it. It appears that it was one of those accidents which are unavoidable and no blame is attached to anyone. Mr. Prevost was only slightly injured, a small abrasion being made on his head.

Minister Gives Testimony.

The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: "For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. I read of Foley Kidney Pills and after trying various remedies without result I decided to try the Foley treatment. I was relieved almost with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1-1/2 bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again. Sold everywhere."
